

In order to reach non-Christian teenagers we have evangelistic activities that are designed to be light, fun, and non-formal. Although we encourage our teenagers to invite their friends to any activity or event we have, the relaxed atmosphere of our evangelistic events better lend themselves to inviting fellow teenage friends. Such activities include lock-ins, trips to theme parks, paintball, Cardinal baseball games, and other more social based activities.

We are in the business of saving souls.